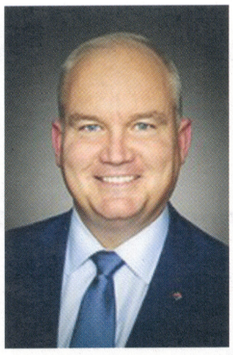
HON. ERIN O'TOOLE

A MESSAGE FROM THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY LEADER



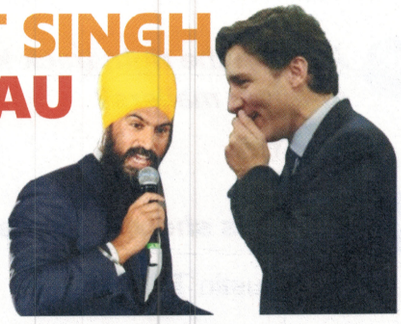
For my Conservative colleagues and I, priority number one is jobs. Our exclusive focus is getting as many people back to work, in every part of Canada, in every sector, as quickly as possible. We are ready to do whatever it takes to get the economy back on track.

Securing our future means a recovery for all Canadians. That means jobs and growth in every sector in every part of the country, not just those that meet some ideological litmus test. It can't just be a recovery for downtown Toronto. There are many working Canadians who for years haven't kept up with the economic growth and prosperity enjoyed by others. For them, the pandemic is a crushing blow. Conservatives continue to work for those who have been left behind by this Liberal government.

Canadians need to trust their institutions and representatives. That means doing what you say you will do. It means dependability. It means certainty. Conservatives will always strive to conduct ourselves with accountability, integrity, and transparency.

At the heart of our work in Parliament is the belief that the goal of government must be the common good of all—the conditions that allow people to achieve their full potential. To nurture, mobilize, and encourage generosity, pride, talent and solidarity.

JAGMEET SINGH & TRUDEAU



"We will vote to keep the government going."

- Jagmeet Singh, Federal NDP Leader, February 24, 2021

The federal NDP continue to give Justin Trudeau and his minority Liberal government a blank cheque regardless of the damage it does to our economy. Indeed, the NDP and the Liberals are a risk to Canada's economy and to your personal financial security. They can't be trusted with jobs and the economy. They have proven that they are not up to the task of getting us out of this recession.

Even before the pandemic, Trudeau and Singh collaborated to ruin Canada's once-enviable finances with their reckless spending. They wasted your hard-earned money on their friends and vanity projects. Like all governments, they massively increased spending in response to the pandemic. But for these bedfellows, it's just the beginning: they plan to keep up their big spending, big debt agenda long after the COVID-19 crisis has passed.

The Liberals and NDP view the pandemic as an opportunity to "reimagine" Canada's economy. It is a risky experiment that has failed wherever it's been tried before, and it will put more Canadians out of work. It's an agenda where some sectors benefit and some don't. As always, the big winners will be their well-connected friends.

Don't be fooled! Saskatoon West does not benefit from this ongoing NDP/Liberal alliance in Ottawa.

MESSAGE FROM YOUR MP

Dear Friend,

As your Member of Parliament, I understand the importance of getting our economy back on track. We can't pass unsustainable debt on to future generations. Once the recovery starts, we will need to get spending under control. That come with every Canadian receiving the security and dignity that comes with a secure, stable, and well-paid job. A comprehensive jobs plan to get Canadians back to work across the country will be a key focus for Conservatives in Parliament.
